officers) and then Thanksgiving. A BIG THANKS goes out to the guys that put on the display at the Big Tool Store!! The display was impressive with the wide assortment projects and an active hands-on-try-it shave horse station. Nice job! You might consider taking that show on the road. What about Old Town, Delano, or somewhere else?

Sawdust and Shavings are therapeutic.

From The President's Corner –
 Well, we're about a month into the fall season. Halloween on the horizon followed by Thanksgiving and then Christmas the clock keeps spinning and the days fly. Since last month's newsletter, we've enjoyed our tool swap meet, David Fowler has been published in Woodworker's Journal (Oct 2011 edition), been visited, entertained and educated by the representatives from Freud cutting tools, displayed some of our many projects at the Big Tool Store, met and greeted several visitors, and gained some new members. We have yet to enjoy the company of Glen Huey, who will be with us the weekend of 21-23 October. Busy, fun, times. By the time this column goes to press, there'll be LESS than 70 days until Christmas. (A gentle reminder), about a month until our next full meeting, (election of 2012 money for program and lunch in to Mike Hutton!!!

SHOW AND TELL

David Fowler brought a small but beautiful dovetail cutting saw he made--including the blade and cutting the tee and circulated signup sheet for those desiring to make one themselves.

David Nesting presented his summary and chair mockups from his course at the Mark Adams school with Michael Fortune

Haze Hazelwood brought a doll bed from red oak and sofa table from quarter sawn white oak. He also had some veneer and gave it to Berts Barn for future projects.

John Rhoads showed a small box with spray flocking and a bird house that cub scouts assemble.

Roy Hayden showed small boxes from various hard woods--very pretty

Les Hastings reported on the NEW location of the KC WoodWorkers Guild---very very nice and recommended a visit in your there.

Program

A very successful gathering of guys, tools, and all kinds of stuff--and many great bargains were had !!

Lou Ortega brought some great bargains he found at a garage sale--precision micro adjustable fence!!

Bill Patton brought in his turned lamp--nearer completion

Bill Tumbleson brought in a small parts cross cut sled.

Scroll with extra pin end blades – $40.00
4 inch jointer on stand with dust attachments – $60.00
dust collector hoses, clamps etc a barrel full $40.00 or best offer
Hand planes
Work table folding legs
Walnut wood, rough cut, air dried

Big Thank You for the Big Tool Store display

Slim Geiser, Bill Tumbleson and John Rhoads would like to thank the thirty men who displayed projects and jigs. There was a great deal of interest in all the wood projects. People took a little extra time at Mike's mirrors, John's clock, Jerry's Shaving Horse and spoke shaves and of course Kenny and Rufus' toys. Again, thank you.

The November Knothole will have a more extensive followup of the Big Tool Store sale and woodworkers show.
